

ON THE MOVE

19

20

22

23

24

25

27

26

19 Nikki Doner-Sherwood, licensed acupuncturist and director of Santa Barbara College of Oriental Medicine intern clinic, has opened Community Centered Oriental Medicine clinic. The clinic is based on a community model traditionally practiced throughout Asia, using sliding-scale and low-cost fees so personal finances do not interfere with treatment. yourccom.com

20 Jeanne Spencer, founding partner and design director at Idea Engineering, has been selected as a contributor to the 17th edition of the international textbook Kleppner's Advertising Procedure. Spencer holds a bachelor's degree from Williams College and a master's degree in graphic design from Yale School of Art. ideaengineering.com

21 Terry Remick (not pictured) has joined the American Lung Association of California as the development manager for the tri-counties. Working from the Santa Barbara office, Remick is responsible for special event planning, operations, corporate sponsorships, volunteer recruitment and event marketing. Remick is a native of Santa Barbara and holds a bachelor's degree with honors in liberal studies and business management from Antioch University. alac.org

22 Kathryn D. McKee, president and principal consultant of Human Resources Consortia, has joined the board of the American Red Cross, Santa Barbara County. McKee currently serves as trustee of the UCSB Foundation and as a director on the boards of Old Spanish Days, Santa Barbara Human Resources Association and the UCSB Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. She is also a member of the Rotary Club of Santa Barbara. McKee is the co-author of Leading People Through Disasters, which is based in part on her experiences with three earthquakes, a building fire and the Rodney King riots. sbredcross.org

23 Marti Fallon has been promoted to training and programs manager for the Nonprofit Support Center. The Nonprofit Support Center provides leadership, consulting and training for nonprofits. Fallon previously was a development associate with the Environmental Defense Center. nscsb.org

24 Regina Magid of Village Properties has reached her 20-year mark in the real estate industry. Magid and her family emigrated as refugees from Lithuania in 1980 in search of opportunities and a better life. In 2004 she received the Howard Gates Award, presented by the Santa Barbara Association of Realtors, for her exceptional work. village-properties.com

25 Patricia Bisch, a resident of Montecito, has published Freedom From Food, about creating a healthy relationship with food to get off the binge/diet merry-go-round. Bisch, who experienced many painful years of dieting and binge eating herself, celebrated the launch of her book at Borders in Santa Barbara in January. patriciabisch.com

26 Cynder Sinclair has been elected to the board of directors of the Council on Alcoholism & Drug Abuse. Sinclair is vice president of wealth management at Santa Barbara Bank & Trust/Pacifica Bancorp. She served as chief executive officer for the Girl Scouts of Tres Condados for 12 years and is completing her doctorate in organizational development through the University of Phoenix. She serves on the board for the Santa Barbara Chamber of Commerce, Child Abuse Listening & Mediation and the Santa Barbara Education Foundation. She is also an advisory member of the Ventura County Community Foundation and is a member of the Santa Barbara Rotary Club. cadasb.org

27 Beverly Engel has joined Domestic Violence Solutions for Santa Barbara County as executive director of the agency. Engel, an internationally recognized psychotherapist and advocate for victims of physical, sexual and emotional abuse, is the author of 20 self-help books, including many bestsellers relating to domestic violence. She has practiced psychotherapy for 30 years in Los Angeles and San Luis Obispo. Engel has appeared on Oprah, CNN, Starting Over, Sally Jesse Raphael, Donabue and other programs and is a regular contributor to Psychology Today. She replaces Rebecca Robertson, who stepped down after 10 years at the helm of the organization. dvsolutions.org